8 Adjust Hands-free Post

The hands-free post is the threaded stud on back of lock. It's purpose (in step 10) is to attach the lock and baseplate together so that the lock will hold itself on the door.

Hands free post may need to be adjusted with a screwdriver to the dimensions shown below.

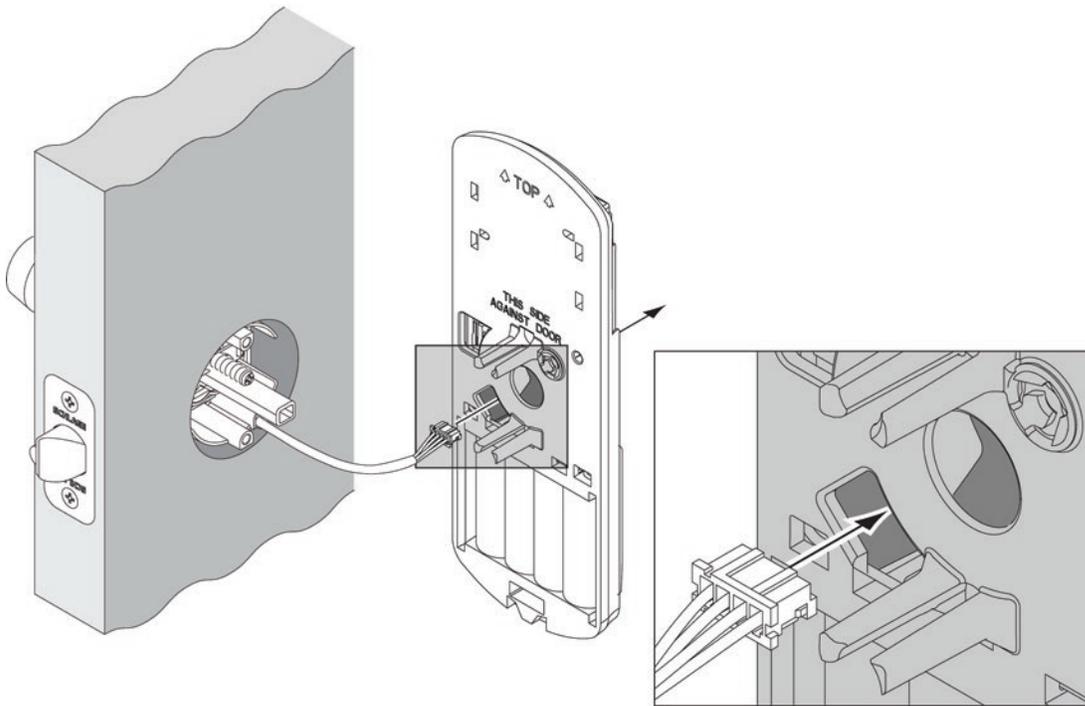

Hold keypad against door

9 Feed Cable through Baseplate

Feed the cable through the hole as shown below. DO NOT connect the cable at this point.
